OUR TEAM

Our knowledge and experience are the difference in creating a safe environment.

Each member of our team is highly decorated with federal, civilian, or military law-enforcement experience, acquired through countless missions around the globe. We have Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC) certified Firearms, Tactics, Use of Force, and Physical Techniques instructors on staff.

Erigere Rapidus uses a proprietary process for planning, tracking, and managing every security contract. Our skillset was mastered on the job as Federal Law Enforcement, State/Local Law Enforcement, and Military.

KEEPING YOUR HIGH-PROFILE CLIENTS SAFE AND SECURE, ANYWHERE

Erigere Rapidus Solutions provides executive protection, celebrity protection, and security driving services around the world. Our management team has over 100 years of protection experience as federal agents, state police officers, local police officers, and members of the military and our staff is handpicked to meet the highest protection standards. We have experts in security and logistics planning, threat assessments, international travel security, crisis management, and emergency response. Our Security Drivers are the highest trained in the civilian community with certifications in armored vehicle operations, high-threat driving techniques, and emergency-response driving. More importantly, we have real-world experience.

ADVANCE SWEEPS/DETECTION

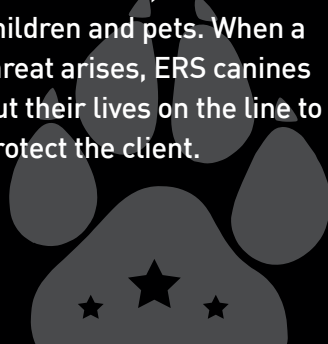

Wherever your high-profile clients need to go, Erigere Rapidus Solutions can sweep the area in advance to ensure it is free of hidden explosives, firearms, microchips, and cameras.

- Restaurants/Nightlife
- Hotels
- Parking Garages
- Office Buildings
- Retail Establishments
- Stadiums and Arenas
- Theaters/Entertainment Venues
- Large Gathering Places

Every member of our security team is hand-picked based on their experience, performance, discretion, and professionalism to exceed the client's expectations.

K9 PROTECTION

K9s used for executive protective services and patrol can smell, see, and hear dangers long before their human handlers. These dogs are specially bred and trained to be stable, loyal, social, and well-behaved, even around children and pets. When a threat arises, ERS canines put their lives on the line to protect the client.
